FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Partner Timothy Szuhaj Elected to Mid-Atlantic Staffing Association Board of Directors

Cherry Hill, N.J., May 16, 2013 – Becker Meisel Partner Timothy J. Szuhaj has recently been elected to the Mid-Atlantic Staffing Association Board of Directors. Serving the Mid-Atlantic region, MASA aims to foster the highest level of competence and business practices among its members. MASA is dedicated to educating its members, clients and the general public about the recruiting industry and its benefits. Promoting the growth and welfare of the recruiting profession in the region and developing a common set of ethical standards and practices is MASA’s primary goal.

“MASA is pleased to welcome Tim to our board,” says Dorian Carleton, Executive Director of MASA. “Tim and his firm are leaders in the Staffing Industry and bring a depth of insight and energy to our team.”

Mr. Szuhaj has a wealth experience related to the Staffing Industry, having served as counsel in a number of staffing industry matters. He counsels staffing clientele in a variety of business and operational issues, including Master Service Agreements, Vendor Management Agreements, Corporate Structure and Risk Management issues, Intellectual Property matters, Finance and Mergers and Acquisitions.

Mr. Szuhaj says, “Businesses are relying on the Staffing Industry more than ever. On a regional basis, MASA plays an important role in promoting the growth and vitality of the recruiting profession. I am delighted to contribute my experience in legal matters related to the Staffing Industry to support MASA’s important and timely mission.”
