

BECKER MEISEL

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Contact: Stephanie Daye
Public Relations and Marketing Associate 973-422-1100
sdaye@beckermeisel.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Becker Meisel's Cherry Hill Office Invites Business and Community Leaders and Residents to Open House and Wine Tasting

Livingston, N.J., October 28, 2010 – Becker Meisel, a Livingston-based premier mid-market firm, will host an Open House and Wine Tasting on Tuesday, November 16, 2010, at their newest office location in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. Business and community leaders and residents are invited to meet Becker Meisel attorneys and learn about the spectrum of legal service offered by the firm.

The Cherry Hill Office, located in the Woodland Falls Corporate Center, is the home of the Family Law and Intellectual Property practice areas, headed by widely recognized attorney Richard C. Klein and Timothy J. Szuhaj, respectively. The office also offers services including commercial litigation, trusts and estates, and healthcare.

“We are extremely excited to be able to offer high quality legal services to businesses and individuals throughout the state,” said Becker Meisel Managing Partner Martin Borosko. “And I am especially pleased to have attorneys the caliber of Mr. Klein and Mr. Szuhaj leading this effort.”

A wine tasting will also be featured at the event. RSVP is requested by November 9; contact Stephanie Daye at 973-422-1100, or sdaye@beckermeisel.com.

###

About Becker Meisel

Becker Meisel is a premier mid-market firm serving the New York, New Jersey and Philadelphia corridor. In addition to providing the complete spectrum of legal services needed by our corporate clients – from litigation, sophisticated transactional, labor and employment and bankruptcy law counseling, to intellectual property, real estate and construction law-related advice – the firm also provides the full scope of family law representation, estate planning and administration services to individuals and families. Our size and regional footprint allow us to provide sophisticated services in a manner not only focused on results, but also on our client's return on their legal investment.